POLAND

Poland, the Republic of Poland, the country of a population of over 38 million people located in middle Europe, between the Baltic Sea in the north and the Carpathians and the Sudetes in the south in the basin of the Vistula and Oder rivers. From the west, it is bordered by Germany, from the south by the Czech Republic and Slovakia, from the east by Belarus and Ukraine, from the north east and north by Lithuania and from the north by the Russian exclave called the Kaliningrad Oblast. Moreover, the most of the northern boundary of Poland is set by the Baltic Sea coast. Polish exclusive economic zone in the Baltic Sea is bordered by zones of Denmark and Sweden.

Poland is a developing country, a member of many international organizations. Poland belongs among others to the European Union, NATO, UN, World Trade Organisation, the Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development, the European Economic Area, the International Energy Agency, Council of Europe, Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe, the International Atomic Energy Agency and the G6. Moreover, Poland is one of the Schengen Agreement and is seeking to join the Euro Zone and the European Space Agency.

GDANSK

Gdansk - a port city in Poland by the Baltic Sea, situated at the mouth of the Motlawa river to the Vistula river by the Gulf of Gdansk, on the Gdansk Coast. Together with Gdynia and Sopot it forms Tricity. It is the cultural, scientific, sports and economic centre transportation junction of northern Poland, the capital of Pomerania. Gdansk agglomeration is inhabited by about 1.2 million people.

Hospitable Gdansk invites you to the charming streets and historic interiors, sea beaches and sailing routes, comfortable hotels, elegant restaurants and charming cafes. There are several theatres, a philharmonic hall, an opera house, a summer music scene, three multiplexes and several smaller cinemas, popular clubs, pubs and discos in the city. Numerous museums, concerts, fairs, exhibitions, street theatres complete the cultural offer, in which everyone depending on interests and moods, can find something interesting for themselves.

In Gdansk apart from the 22nd European Armwrestling Championship also the European Football Championship 2012 will take place. The city is also a candidate to win the title of the European Capital of Culture in 2016.

GDANSK - SOPOT - GDYNIA PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION:

Tricity is connected by a network of roads and railway. The most advanced transport are buses, taxis and SKM – Fast City Railway. SKM run frequency in the Tricity in peak hours is 7-8 minutes, and off-peak 15 minutes. Tricity has a common electronic metropolitan ticket covering all carriers in the Tricity.
